

More than 550 women who participate in the Seattle Womens' Public Golf Association events begin swinging into their official 1964 season this week. Clubs from Earlington, Foster, Jackson, Jefferson, Juanita, Maplewood, Mt. Si, Redmond, Wayne, Wellington Hills and West Seattle will be competing for City honors. The Annual Team Matches are already underway with the defending champions for the past three years from Earlington hopeful of another successful season.

The fifteen year old organization under the direction of President, Mrs. Kelly Bollinger of West Seattle has a full season of activities planned starting with a sweeps on April 28 at Earlington, followed by the Pro-Ladies at Maplewood on May 22, Captains' Day at Redmond August 6, a best ball partnership on September 8 at Jackson, the annual Alex Rose Memorial sweeps at Wayne on October 6, the Champion of Champions at Mt. Si October 9 and the season's highlight which finds the Seattle Publinx Championship being contested at Jefferson Park June 15 thru 18.

Public Links golf, which has seen such Champions as Joanne Gunderson, Ruth Jessen, Ann Quast, and Claudia Lindor go on to greater honors looks forward to greeting all new members in hopes that another outstanding player will come into its ranks and further enhance the golf picture in the Northwest.

The other officers of the Association are:

First Vice President:	Mrs. Neal Johnson, West Seattle
Second " " :	Mrs. J. Tretheway, West Seattle
Third " " :	Mrs. Charles Keene, Earlington
Secretary:	Mrs. Roger Wilcox, Wellington Hills
Treasurer:	Mrs. Roy Smith, Jackson
Trustees:	Mrs. Hal Lee, Foster Mrs. Glenn Secord, Jackson
Team Captain:	Mrs. Harry Johnson, Foster
Rules Chairman:	Mrs. Harold Freeman, Jackson